JP Counseling Presents

Relationships, especially with our partners, shape every aspect of our lives and can deeply influence our well-being, success and sense of fulfillment.

Whether you are married, in a committed relationship or hoping to build a new relationship, join Licensed Counselors, Jill Perry-Phillips and Mary C. Hayes, for a free virtual event designed to help you better understand the power of connection and relationships.

During this engaging and insightful session, we'll dive into the essential role relationships play in our daily lives and long-term growth. You'll walk away with meaningful strategies to build stronger, healthier, and more resilient connections with your partner.
